

GERMAN LANGUAGE FOR BEGINNERS

Course Details

INSTRUCTOR: HERR KHALED EL-HALAWANY

DURATION: 24 HOURS

NO PRIOR EXPERIENCE REQUIRED

E-CERTIFICATE UPON COMPLETION

About The Instructors:

HERR KHALED EL-HALAWANY

He has been working in the field of teaching the German language for more than 12 years.

has taught thousands of students and helped them master the German language, write it correctly, and speak it fluently. delivered courses in many Arab and international institutions and companies, and thousands of people follow him to learn the German language and benefit from the content he provides.

Course overview:

This beginner-friendly German course is based on the internationally recognized Netzwerk Neu A1 & Hören und Sprechen A1 curriculum. The course focuses on developing all four essential language skills: speaking, listening, reading, and writing, with a strong emphasis on real-life communication.

Throughout 12 structured units, learners will build a solid foundation in German needed for everyday life, travel, study, or work. After each lesson, there will be a quiz, and after lessons 6 and 12, there will be full review assessments to measure progress and boost confidence.

By the end of the course, students will be able to introduce themselves, hold small conversations, navigate everyday situations in German-speaking countries, and understand basic spoken and written German.

What you'll learn:

By taking this course, you will learn how to:

Communication Skills

- Introduce yourself and others confidently
- Talk about friends, work, hobbies, and daily routines
- Have basic conversations at shops, restaurants, and workplaces
- Ask and give directions
- Handle simple phone calls and in-person conversations
- Order food, make appointments, and talk about travel plans

Grammar (A1 Foundation)

You will master beginner German grammar, including:

- Personal and possessive pronouns
- Regular and irregular verbs (present tense and simple past)
- Sentence structure and question forms
- Definite and indefinite articles (der, die, das, ein, eine)
- Cases: nominative, accusative, and introduction to dative
- Modal verbs (can, must, may, want, should)
- Imperative (commands)
- Adjectives and prepositions

Vocabulary Topics

- Numbers, days, months, and time
- Jobs and workplaces
- Food, meals, and shopping
- Travel, directions, and transportation
- Health, appointments, and emergencies
- Clothing, housing, invitations, and celebrations

Culture Insights

- Daily life in Germany, Austria, and Switzerland
- Food culture and shopping etiquette
- Public transportation and city life
- Traditions, seasons, and travel destinations
- Social rules such as punctuality and communication style

Skills Practice

- Listening to everyday conversations
- Writing short messages, descriptions, and simple emails
- Reading signs, forms, and everyday texts
- Speaking confidently in guided real-life scenarios

Why do you need to attend this course?

This course is perfect if:

- ✓ You have never studied German before and want a smooth start
- ✓ You want to communicate confidently while visiting or living in a German-speaking country
- ✓ You plan to study or work in Germany, Austria, or Switzerland
- ✓ You want a structured learning path with measurable progress
- ✓ You want to learn German in a fun, practical way — not just memorize rules

By the end of the course, you will have a solid A1 level, ready to continue to A2, and capable of handling most common beginner situations in German-speaking environments.

Course Content

▷▷ 1 Hello!

Greeting and saying goodbye | Introducing yourself and others | Asking how someone is and responding | Talking about yourself and others | Saying numbers up to 20 | Giving your phone number and email address | Spelling | Talking about countries and languages

Vocabulary: Numbers from 1–20 | Countries and languages

Grammar: W-questions | Statements | Verbs and personal pronouns | Personal pronouns in texts

Pronunciation: Alphabet

Strategy: Writing and saying an email address

Culture: Countries and languages

2 Friends, colleagues, and me

Talking about hobbies | Making appointments | Naming days of the week | Talking about work, jobs, and working hours | Saying numbers from 20 | Filling out a form

Vocabulary: Hobbies | Days of the week | Numbers from 20 | Jobs

Grammar: Irregular verbs and personal pronouns | Yes/No questions | Definite articles: der, das, die | Nouns: singular and plural | The verbs haben and sein

Pronunciation: Sentence melody: questions and answers

Strategy: Learning articles

Culture: New in the club

3 In Hamburg

Naming places and buildings | Asking and answering questions about places | Naming means of transport | Asking about things | Asking for and describing directions | Naming seasons and months | Talking about hobbies

Vocabulary: Places and buildings | Transportation | Directions | Months and seasons

Grammar: Indefinite article: ein, eine, ein | Negative article: kein, keine, keinen | Imperative with Sie | Adjective with sein

Pronunciation: Long and short vowels

Strategy: Understanding texts with international words

Culture: Events in Hamburg | Seasons in Germany, Austria, and Switzerland (D-A-CH) | The city tour in Munich

Course Content

► 4 Enjoy Your Meal!

Plan a shopping trip | Have conversations while shopping | Have conversations during meals | Talk about food preferences | Talk about food

Vocabulary: Meals | Food items | Drinks | Stores

Grammar: Accusative case | Verbs with the accusative | The verbs mögen (to like) and möchten (would like) | Word order in a sentence

Pronunciation: Umlauts: ä, ö, ü

Strategy: Organize and learn words | Understand texts using W-questions

Culture: Jobs related to food

5 Everyday Life and Family

Understand and tell the time | Make time-related statements | Talk about family | Make plans | Arrange an appointment by phone | Apologize for being late and respond to apologies

Vocabulary: Daily routine | Telling the time | Family

Grammar: Time expressions: am, um, von ... bis | Possessive articles in nominative and accusative | Modal verbs: must, can, want | Sentence structure with modal verbs (sentence bracket)

Pronunciation: The letter r in the middle and at the end of words

Strategy: Prepare a phone call

Culture: Punctuality?

6 Time with Friends

Talk about free time | Understand and say dates | Talk about birthdays | Understand and write invitations | Order and pay for food and drinks | Talk about an event | Plan activities

Vocabulary: Ordinal numbers | Leisure activities | Food and drinks | Events

Grammar: Date expressions: am ... | Separable verbs | Personal pronouns in the accusative: me, you ... | Preposition für (for) + accusative | Simple past of to have and to be

Pronunciation: ei, eu, au

Strategy: Identify key information when reading and listening

Culture: Bars and cafés in Germany, Austria, and Switzerland (D-A-CH) | Events in D-A-CH

Course Content

►► 7 Everyday Work Life

Understand a blog post | Write about everyday (work) life | Have conversations at the workplace | Give location information | Describe processes | Understand and reply to letters | Make small talk

Vocabulary: Office routine | Location descriptions | Bank | Media

Grammar: Connecting sentences with: and, or, but | Articles in the dative | Preposition mit (with) + dative | Location: prepositions with the dative

Pronunciation: s and sch/st

Strategy: Writing letters

Culture: Small talk in the office

8 Fit and Healthy

Understand and express instructions | Give personal details | Name body parts | Repeat instructions | Have conversations at the doctor's office | Understand and give instructions | Understand and give health tips

Vocabulary: Body parts | Illnesses | Medication | Hospital professions

Grammar: Imperative with du, ihr, and Sie | Imperative sentences | Modal verbs: should, must, (not) allowed to

Pronunciation: d, t and k, g

Strategy: Guessing/deriving meanings of words

Culture: Home remedies for illnesses

9 My Apartment

Understand housing ads | Describe an apartment | Plan the furnishing of an apartment | Reply to an invitation | Talk about furnishing | Give location descriptions | Express likes and dislikes | Name colors | Talk about types of housing | Write a text describing an apartment

Vocabulary: Rooms | Furniture and appliances | Colors | Types of housing

Grammar: sein + adjective | Preposition in + accusative | Two-way prepositions with the dative

Pronunciation: long and short e

Strategy: Writing using text modules

Culture: Types of housing in Germany-Austria-Switzerland (D-A-CH)

Course Content

►► 10 Studies and Work

Describe a daily routine | Talk about past events | Understand statements about job searching | Report about a day | Make phone calls and ask follow-up questions | Talk about jobs

Vocabulary: Jobs and professions | Workplaces | Studies | Applications

Grammar: Perfect tense: verb bracket | Past participle: regular and irregular verbs, verbs ending in -ieren | Perfect with haben or sein

Pronunciation: h

Strategy: Phone conversations

Culture: Year-round jobs

11 I Like the Jacket!

Talk about clothing | Understand compliments | Talk about past events | Have conversations while shopping for clothes | Find your way in a department store | Ask for and give information | Research and understand information about Berlin

Vocabulary: Clothing | In the department store | Shops

Grammar: Which? (Welche?) Which one? (Welcher?) | this, that (dieser, dieses, diese) | Past participle: separable and inseparable verbs | Personal pronouns in the dative | Verbs with the dative

Pronunciation: Stress patterns in verbs with prefixes

Strategy: Understanding information on signs and boards

Culture: Trend city Berlin

12 Off on Vacation!

Make suggestions for a city tour | Understand a route description | Describe a route | Write a postcard | Understand and write travel reports | Ask and answer travel-related questions | Describe weather | Talk about travel destinations and write about them

Vocabulary: Types of trips and travel destinations | Tourist attractions | Directions | Weather

Grammar: Pronoun man | Connect sentences with because (denn) | Question words: Who? Whom? Whose? What? | Time expressions with prepositions in the dative

Pronunciation: f, v, w

Strategy: Reporting based on a text

Culture: Travel destinations in Germany

The Network Shared Flat: Finally vacation! | On the farm.